3. M	w Importance of Main Department III
oi me Po hi in	Main Department II (Capitalist Countries) s become the most important political office in the ministry. In view the emergetic propaganda against the radification of the Paris agree- nts undertaken by Main Department III, sub-department 1 (All-German licy), HV III has become at least equally important with HV II. A gh official of the ministry recently declared HV III to be the most portant department, and its chief, Wilhelm Meissner, one of the most lumble and important men in the ministry. Meissner's poor health is cause for concern to his superiors.	25 X 1
